Public Meeting Notice

You're invited to a Public Meeting to consider Major Revision to Draft Plan of Subdivision 41T-91013
and Zoning By-Law Amendment Application Z-2022-013
June 20, 2023 at 9:00 am

A change is proposed in your neighbourhood: The proposed Consent seeks to sever a 2.7 ha parcel of land upon which Draft Approval of a six-lot Plan of Subdivision has been granted from a 70.6 ha parcel. The Zoning By-Law Amendment proposes to modify the existing Resort Residential Special 'R2-18-1998' and Environmental Hazard (EH) zones on the lands to reflect the recommendations of a recently completed Environmental Impact Study. The proposed Major Change to the Draft Approved Plan of Subdivision seeks to reconfigure the plan of subdivision which was previously approved through an Ontario Municipal Board ruling to avoid natural heritage features and add a sixth lot. The related Consent Application is File No. B-2022-012.

Know your rights

Section 34(11) of the Planning Act outlines rights of appeal for Zoning By-law Amendment applications.

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the Town of South Bruce Peninsula to the Ontario Land Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to Town of South Bruce Peninsula before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting, or make written submissions to the Town of South Bruce Peninsula before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Land Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.

Section 51(39) of the of the Planning Act outlines rights of appeal for Plan of Subdivision applications. Only the applicant, a public body, various utility company (or their representative), the Minister and the Municipality can appeal the approval or refusal of draft plan of subdivision, lapsing provisions or any condition of draft plan approval.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting, if one is held, or make written submissions to the County of Bruce in respect of the proposed plan of subdivision before the County of Bruce gives or refuses to give approval to the draft plan of subdivision, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision of County of Bruce to the Ontario Land Tribunal.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting, if one is held, or make written submissions to County of Bruce in respect of the proposed plan of subdivision before the County of Bruce gives or refuses to give approval to the draft plan of subdivision, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Land Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.

Section 53(19) of the Planning Act outlines rights of appeal for Consent applications.

If a person or public body that files an appeal of a decision of the County of Bruce in respect of the proposed consent does not make written submissions to the County of Bruce before it gives, or refuses to give, a provisional Consent, the Ontario Land Tribunal may dismiss the appeal.
