Building and Construction

Projects that can proceed:

- Are residential construction activities or projects and related services.
- Prepare a site for an institutional, commercial, industrial or residential development, including any necessary excavation, grading, roads or utilities infrastructure.
- Municipal infrastructure.

Note: Complete listing of projects and prohibitions is not yet available on Provincial web pages.

Secondary Residence/Cottages

The Province continues to discourage interprovincial travel. For people with a secondary residence/cottage, the Provincial regulations state; if a person needs to travel to their secondary residence, the trip should be for less than 24 hours (for only essential reasons, e.g. fix plumbing) or for at least 2 weeks. If you do need to come to your seasonal residence/cottage, you need to stay at your property, bring enough supplies to last and don't venture into the community. comply with Provincial and Local Health Unit Orders.

Short Term Accommodations

The Province has banned short term rentals except for those who have no other available housing. We remind those who rent to be aware of this Order as the Provincial fines are steep.

Transient Camping

Under current Provincial Order transient camping is prohibited (banned).
