
Building Permit Fees

Notes

The fees charged by the Town of South Bruce Peninsula for building and septic permits including but not being limited to the construction, alteration and demolition of structures, swimming pools, tents, renewal, wood burning systems, change of use and septic system installation and inspection permits shall be addressed under separate by-law and may be amended from time to time.